

Brunello di Montalcino D.O.C.G. Campo di Marzo 2010

TASTING NOTES

www.jamesuckling.com

Il Valentiano Brunello di Montalcino Campo di Marzo

Vintage 2010

Points 92

A rich and earthy red with orange peel and plum character. Full body and tangy with lots of jammy flavors. It becomes bright and fresh with air. Thoroughly delicious. Drink or hold.

The Wine Advocate

Review by Monica Lerner

Rating: 89

Drink 2016 - 2024

The 2010 Brunello di Montalcino Campo di Marzo opens to smoky notes of ash and pencil shaving that segue slowly to dried cherry, savory spice and used leather. Give it a few minutes and the wine opens nicely to show blue flower, pressed violet and dark rose. The complexity on display is a pleasant surprise. Il Valentiano shows a silky but thin mouthfeel with a nice point of acidity on the close. This is a very good effort.